School Mission and Goals

Learning is the art of seeking knowledge. Knowledge is essential for maximum human potential to be realized. We measure success by our proximity to our potential. It is our responsibility to provide an environment conducive to success for children. We encourage parental/community involvement in the educational process.
School Vision: "All children can learn to be Highly Performing, Successful and Rich."

On Campus Incidents 5

Current Count is 2. Bush administration briefs all staff on safety concerns and calls upon the entire staff to effectively monitor the campus environment, confront strangers, report suspicious behavior and enforce school safety policy. Each staff member has a role based on their position. However, all staff is involved in some form/level of responsible supervision of children in our care.
Consistent supervision and enforcement of discipline and safety rules will optimize a safe campus.
